

BIG CUT MADE IN APPROPRIATIONS

Council Makes Radical Changes When Ordinance is Reconsidered at Adjourned Session.

TAX LEVY STILL UNSETTLED

Primary Assessment Roll for Ewing Between Seventh and Ninth Streets Approved.

The council was unable to straighten out the tax levy muddle at the adjourned session last night when an effort was made to reconsider the vote on the suspension of rules Thursday night. Councilman Base, who has opposed the new tax levy at $1.40 from the start, again voted against the suspension of rules so that the new ordinance could be placed on second reading. The council will meet again tonight and it is understood the ordinance will be placed on second reading.

The ordinance fixing the appropriations for the various city departments was also presented last night, and the big knife was used in slicing away goodly sums for several of the appropriations as first presented. Some of the appropriations have been cut close, but the councilmen who were in favor of the "slicing" seemed to go on the theory that the way to practice economy was to make the appropriations small enough so that there would be no extra cash to be thrown away.

When the motion to reconsider the vote on the suspension of rules for the appropriation ordinance was made, Councilman Davison said that he believed that the ordinance should go to the second reading and then if any of the councilmen desired to make amendments they could do so. He further declared that it was necessary to know just what expenses would be due during the coming year and gave a long list of figures showing just what money would be derived for the general fund by levies of $1.00 to $1.25 on the hundred dollars. He further stated that he estimated the expense of the city without incidentals would amount to $37,000 and that with a levy of $1.25 approximately $48,000 would be received. This would leave about $11,000 to be applied on the street improvement debt. It is estimated that the city's part of all the improvements will amount to about $11,000. He declared that it was not good policy to incur debts and not provide a way to pay them. He said he was opposed to making debts and carrying them from year to year and that they could be paid at the time they were made as well as at any future time. "The city can be compelled to pay such indebtedness" he added "but it will not be to the financial credit of the city nor to the moral credit of the men contracting such debts, if the contractors find it necessary to resort to legal means."

When the vote was taken to suspend the rules all the councilmen voted in the affirmative with the exception of Base. Because of the one negative vote the ordinance could not be taken up.

Misch then moved to reconsider the vote on the appropriation ordinance and all the councilmen voted "aye" with the exception of Sherman Day. Upon the motion to suspend the rules and place the ordinance upon second reading, however an unanimous affirmative vote was recorded.

Under the proposed ordinance $8,000 was set aside for the street fund and upon motion of Misch this was cut to $3,500, all the councilmen voting "aye" but Tasker.

The salary fund was left at $4,500 and the fund for the police department is $2,700. The garbage fund was reduced from $1,000 to $800 and the park fund was cut from $300 to $75. The other funds are as follows: Fire department $3,000; light $9,000; contagious diseases $200; interest on temporary loans $600.

Upon a motion of Misch the rules were suspended and the ordinance was placed upon its final reading and was passed by a unanimous vote.

The majority of the councilmen are in favor of the higher tax levy and of making a temporary loan. They are of the opinion that in this manner the city can lift its debt for the street improvements during the coming year and it would not be necessary to issue bonds which would extend for not less than five years. Should the ordinance fail to pass, however, there will be but one way to meet the indebtedness and that would be through a bond issue. Under the law the tax levy must be fixed this month of the old levy will stand for the coming year.

City Engineer E. B. Douglass filed his report of the improvement on Ewing between Seventh and Ninth streets, and reported that the work had been completed according to the plans and specifications at a total cost of $4,271.75. Of this amount the city must pay $675.29 and the property owners $3,596.46.

Hodapp introduced a resolution approving the prima facie assessment roll for this improvement. The resolution accepts the work as having been fully completed and orders the publication of the same and sets October 10 at 7:30 o'clock p. m., as the time for hearing remonstrances.

DEMOCRATS OPEN COUNTY CAMPAIGN

Samuel M. Ralston, Democratic Candidate for Governor, Made an Address at Brownstown.

MET HERE BY COMMITTEE

Meeting Was Held at Court Room Which Was Decorated With Flags and Bunting—Good Crowd.

This is a big day with the democrats of Jackson county as their campaign opened this afternoon at Brownstown with an address by Samuel M. Ralston, democratic candidate for governor. Preparations have been in progress for several days for the meeting and this morning Brownstown donned its "Sunday clothes" to greet the candidate. A number of the stores at Brownstown were decorated with flags and bunting. Quite a number of voters living outside the county came for the meeting.

The meeting was held in the court room which was decorated for the occasion. A good crowd of democrats, many of them from Seymour, attended. The leaders are well pleased with the result of the meeting and believe that there was a good representation, all things considered.

Mr. Ralston arrived in Seymour shortly after 11 o'clock this morning from Corydon where he made an address Friday night. He was met at the interurban station by a reception committee and driven to the Lynn Hotel in an automobile.

Quite a number of Brownstown people among whom were Auditor H. W. Wacker, Clerk Willard Stout, County Chairman Ross Robertson, John R. Tinder, Scott McElfresh and J. M. Robertson, came up in an automobile early this morning to be on hands to greet the speaker as soon as he stepped from the traction car. The automobiles were decorated with flags which indicated that the democrats were making a "big day" with the meeting.

Mr. Ralston was also met by a number of local democrats and was dined at the hotel at noon. Among the Seymour democratic leaders who heard the address were Judge J. H. Shea, Attorney General Thomas Honan, O. O. Swails, C. W. Burkart, E. P. Elsner, John Congdon and F. W. Wesner.

Mr. Ralston returned here this afternoon and went to Franklin where he is scheduled to address a democratic meeting this evening.

Class Election.

The members of the sophomore class of the Shields high school organized Friday afternoon. The astor was chosen as the class flower and the class colors will be Yale blue and white. The officers elected are: president, Harold Stants; vice president, Albert Walters; treasurer, Magdeline Fetting; secretary, Anna Shields.

John Gallimore, who has made quite a record for himself this summer in growing vegetables, exhibits two large sweet potatoes having a combined weight of seven pounds.

REPUBLICAN CLUB AT INDIANAPOLIS

Influential Business Men Organize to Work for the Re-election of President Taft.

REALIZE DANGER OF CHANGE

Purpose Will Be Educational And to Show Cause of National Prosperity.

Indianapolis, Sept. 28.—In the belief that continuation of the present general prosperity of the United States demands the re-election of President Taft a number of prominent and influential business men of this city are organizing a Business Men's Republican Club, with headquarters at 1340 Lemeke Annex, which will actively interest itself in the present campaign in the behalf of the Republican party. The organization begins its existence with a nucleus of seventy-five members, all of whom are men of high standing.

In speaking of the club one of the promoters said: "In general the work of the club, it is said, will be educational.

"Today, so accustomed have the people become to an undisturbed contemplation of daily accruing profits that they imagine that all these gifts are heaven sent, and that national business management has nothing to do with them. The basic source of their earnings—continued, protected, national prosperity—has been largely lost sight of. Another disaster like that once or twice experienced in former years would, of course, give once more, with terrible force, the entire body politic its correct sense of perspective.

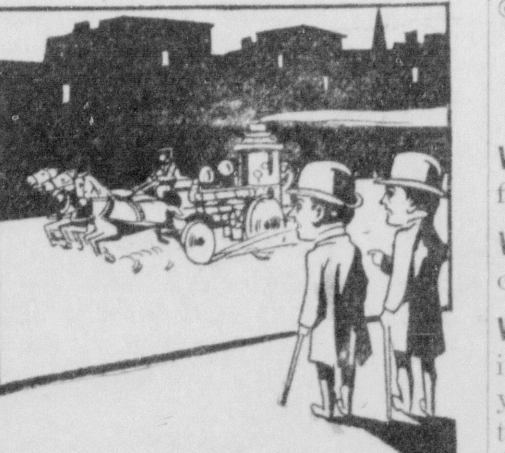

SCHOOL OPENS MONDAY.

Classes At Crothersville Will Begin Studies For Term.

Crothersville school will open Monday and arrangements have been made by the board to accommodate a larger number of pupils than last year. Last year the high school took a decided advancement by having an eight months' term which gives it a commissioned standing. This will be continued this year and is quite a benefit to the pupils who desire to enter colleges or universities. There is a good library in connection with the school and is found to be most helpful to the students. The building has been repainted and varnished and the furnace improved and enlarged.

The eighth grade will be in charge of a separate teacher this year leaving the entire time of three teachers for the high school, besides the teachers of music and drawing. Both German and Latin are taught thus giving freshmen the choice of the two languages. Agriculture and botany will be given in freshman year.

All the high school teachers are well trained and experienced. Miss Kendall, the new assistant, taught Latin and English for six years at Spiceland Academy. She is a graduate of Earlham and has done a year of post graduate work at Chicago University. She comes highly recommended.

You can rest assured that your property is insured in GOOD COMPANIES every time you hear the fire alarm, if WE place the insurance.

The insurance policy is just as good as the company behind it, no more, no less—if the company is strong and properly managed, you'll enjoy prompt settlement of your losses—otherwise, in all probability, not. Our companies will stand investigation on any of these features.

LIBRARY BOARD May Institute Proceedings to Get Levy Requested.

Should the council fail to make a levy for six cents on the one hundred dollars for library purposes it is probable that the library board will institute mandamus proceedings in their effort to compel the county auditor to place that levy upon the books. It now appears that the council will authorize a levy of four cents on the one hundred dollars as this is provided in the proposed new levy and also in the present levy. In case either is placed in force the four cent levy will stand.

A member of the library board stated this morning that while the board had taken no official action it was altogether probable that mandamus proceedings would be instituted. He said the board had investigated the law and had come to the conclusion that it could fix the levy for library purposes and intended to test the law at this time. The council contends that inasmuch as the library was a gift of Andrew Carnegie and was built upon the condition that the city pay at least $1,000 a year to maintain the law governing city libraries would not be effective.

APPOINTED TRAINMASTER

Louis Bruning Receives Promotion on I. & L. Line.

Louis Bruning of this city, who was recently appointed trainmaster of the Indianapolis & Louisville Traction Railway, has taken up his new duties. He was one of the first conductors employed on this line and had charge of one of the first cars run after the road was completed. He is a careful and efficient traction man and it was largely because of these qualities that he was given the promotion.

Mr. Bruning was appointed to succeed the late Daniel C. Ward, who occupied that position for several years. The office of trainmaster is a very important one, but the company has made no mistake in the selection of Mr. Bruning. His office is located at the general office building at Scottsburg.

FARMERS ARE BUSY

Taking Advantage of Good Weather For Wheat Sowing.

The farmers of Jackson county are unusually busy now, for besides the regular work which must be done many are preparing their ground and sowing wheat. On account of the rain the wheat sowing has been delayed for several days, and as the farmers desire to get the seed in the ground as soon as possible they are taking advantage of every day they can.

In 1911 the wheat was damaged by bugs and other insects, but an expert said that the cold winter had killed them and very few were reported this year. Many of the farmers who put in a small acreage last year because of the insects do not fear them now and consequently the acreage is larger. The wheat was unusually good in this county last year, although the quantity was smaller than usual. Most of the seed used this fall was grown in Jackson county.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Harding will leave Tuesday for Redlands, Cal. for future residence. Mr. and Mrs. U. F. Lewis will ship their household goods at that time but will not leave the city for several weeks.

HONAN ORDERED TO ENJOIN GAMBLERS

Governor Marshall Will Try to Prevent Promoters of Porter Club From Starting The Races.

BRANAMAN TO GET EVIDENCE

Information Received That Elaborate System of Gambling Was to Have Been Carried Out.

Governor Marshall has ordered Attorney-General Honan to file suit in the Lake-Porter circuit court immediately to Springs Jockey Club, at Porter, Ind., from starting a race meet, scheduled for the middle of October.

Thomas Branaman, a deputy in Mr. Honan's office was ordered to Chicago to get evidence against proprietors of the race track, which is almost completed, and file it with the prosecutor in the northern court. An elaborate system of gambling to be used by Chicago gamblers, was to have been carried out at the track according to information which reached the Governor. Some time ago Mr. Branaman, at orders of the Governor, went to the track at Porter and returned with evidence, which was not made public. Later the proposed race meet was postponed from September to October.

Meanwhile, it was said the promoters were forming an elaborate system of oral bookmaking by which they hoped to evade the Indiana gambling laws. Discussing the situation Governor Marshall said:

"I'm going to notify the sheriff of Porter county to arrest every one of them up there as soon as laws are broken.

"While I'm in office Indiana is going to be the dumping ground Chicago gamblers. I stopped it New Albany, when the state was becoming the dumping ground for Louisville, and I'm going to stop it up there in the northwestern counties too.

"I'm old enough to remember when we had a law against nine pins Indiana. Straightaway somebody put another pin in the alley to evade the law. That sort of thing is not going to happen at Porter."

The jockey club was incorporated under the laws of South Dakota, and it is on that basis that the suit for injunction will be brought against them. To prevent them from incorporating in Indiana, the Governor has ordered the secretary of state to refuse to accept articles of incorporation from the club.

Funeral Services.

The funeral services of the late Thomas Cary, who was fatally shocked Wednesday evening while repairing a broken electric light wire, will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the family residence on East Laurel street. TESTIMONY OF FIVE WOMEN

Proves That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is Reliable.

Reedville, Ore.—"I can truly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all women who are passing through the Change of Life, as it made me a well woman after suffering three years."

—Mrs. MARY BOGART, Reedville, Oregon.

New Orleans, La.—"When passing through the Change of Life I was troubled with hot flashes, weak and dizzy spells and backache. I was not fit for anything until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which proved worth its weight in gold to me."

—Mrs. GASTON BLONDEAU, 1541 Polymnia St., New Orleans.

Mishawaka, Ind.—"Women passing through the Change of Life can take nothing better than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am recommending it to all my friends because of what it has done for me."

—Mrs. CHAS. BAUER, 523 E. Marion St., Mishawaka, Ind.

Alton Station, Ky.—"For months I suffered from troubles in consequence of my age and thought I could not live. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me well and I want other suffering women to know about it."

—Mrs. EMMA BAILEY, Alton Station, Ky.

Deism, No. Dak.—"I was passing through Change of Life and felt very bad. I could not sleep and was very nervous. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to perfect health and I would not be without it."

—Mrs. E. M. THORN, Deism, No. Dak.

Fifty Years Ago Today.

Sept. 28.

News of Lincoln's emancipation proclamation reached Richmond. The Richmond Dispatch declared that the war could end only by exhaustion of the north or the extermination of the south. Europe heard of General Lee's defeat in Maryland, and Confederate stocks declined in London and Paris.

An article that has real merit should be time become popular. That such is the case with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been attested by many dealers. Here is one of them. H. W. Hendrickson, Ohio Falls, Ind., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best for coughs, colds and croup, and is my best seller." For sale by all dealers.

Eugene Weathers, formerly of this city, has moved to San Diego, California. In ordering the Republican moved to him at that place he said that the further away from home he gets the more anxious he is for the paper. He writes that San Diego is quite a business city and is growing rapidly.

The implicit confidence that many people have in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is founded on their experience in the use of that remedy and their knowledge of the many remarkable cures of colic, diarrhoea and dysentery that it has effected. For sale by all dealers.

Dr. H. P. Butts, of Crothersville, was in the city Friday night and attended a meeting of the committee of the Progressive party.

THIS LADY'S GOOD APPETITE

Mrs. Jansen, in a Letter From Mobile, Tells How She Gained It.

Mobile, Ala.—"I suffered for seven years with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. Sigurd Jansen in a letter from this city. "I felt weak and always had a headache and was always going to the doctor. At last I was operated on, and felt better, but soon I had the same trouble."

My husband asked me to try Cardui. I felt better after the first bottle, and now I have a good appetite and sleep well. I feel fine, and the doctor tells me I am looking better than he ever saw me."

If you are sick and miserable, and suffer from any of the pains due to womanly trouble—try Cardui.

Cardui is successful because it is composed of ingredients that have been found to act curatively on the womanly constitution.

More than fifty years it has been the other members of the family. The fee will be named in a short time.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

HANDICAPS.

Young man: I want you to read what Macaulay says about the opposing generals at the battle of Merwinde:

"Of all the 120,000 men gathered around Merwinde under all the standard arms of western Europe, it is probable that the two feeblest in body were the hunchbacked dwarf who urged forward the fiery onslaught of France and the asthmatic skeleton who covered England's slow retreat."

You are neither a hunchbacked dwarf nor an asthmatic skeleton.

But suppose you were? Or, suppose you are a runt and a weakling, physically?

Nevertheless, take courage! There's Napoleon. You think of him as a robust, sawedoff little giant, able to get along with four hours' sleep, but do you know—

He came to Paris an undersized, hollow cheeked boy, at whom they poked fun at the engineering school because he was small? Even after he had shown special talent as an artilleryman he was dismissed from the army and despaired of his future.

He tells us about making the thin soup upon which he and his brother lived, and he says, "I breakfasted off dry bread, but I bolted the door on my poverty."

Note the nerve and the fine pride of the phrase.

Most young men would have given up. After seven years as lieutenant there was no promotion in sight, but the little corporal wrote in his diary:

"I've done all I can do. Now let the world look out!"

And there's Theodore Roosevelt—A puny city lad who left New York, went west and lived the cowboy life in order to save himself from a premature death. Think or say what you like about Roosevelt politically, there are few men who are his peers physically.

And of literary men there are Darwin, who was an invalid for forty years, and Stevenson, who when he could not raise his head from his pillow wrote stuff that will live.

Do not these instances—and there are hundreds more—make you ashamed to say you cannot do what you want to do, or be what you want to be?

The flesh may be weak, but is the spirit willing?

When you can say with Napoleon, "I've done all I can," then you can also say:

"Now let the world look out."

And it will look out for you—and get out of your way.

If you believe in saving money regularly and placing these weekly savings where they will draw interest from the time they are laid away, it will pay you to take stock in the new Series "D" of the Co-Operative Building and Loan Association which will be opened Monday, October 7. This Association is one of the substantial business concerns of our county. It has enabled hundreds of our people to own their own homes by easy payment and it has helped hundreds to save and invest in business or other enterprises. In his recent examination, the building and loan examiner of the State of Indiana found the Co-Operative to be one of the best managed associations in the state.

To become a stockholder you subscribe for as many shares as you wish to carry, the membership fee being 25c per share which is paid only once. The dues are 25c per week per share, thus encouraging the habit of saving regularly and placing these savings where they will earn dividends until they amount to $100 per share. No premium is charged for loans and the money is loaned on first mortgage on real estate in Jackson county or on ninety per cent. of the value of the stockholder's pass book, so that there is the best security possible for the investments made by the stockholders.

Take some stock in the new series and begin the habit of regular saving. You will find your money accumulating faster than you think.

See the secretary, Thomas J. Clark, Opera House Block, for full particulars.

SATURDAY NIGHT SERMONS

BY REV. SAMUEL W. PURVIS, D.D.

THE GARDEN OF ALLAH.

Text, "He will make her desert like the garden of the Lord."—Isa. 41, 3.

"It's God forsaken, sure enough," observed a fellow traveler as we stood on the rear platform of Overland train crossing section of Utah, a bit of great American desert now fast passing away. "Nothing but sand, rattlesnakes, skeletons of cattle and sagebrush," he commented. "Best honey on earth comes from that sagebrush," said another by his side. Good! I liked that. Not many can see blessings in the desert. Hichens explains the fascination of the Sahara; Mary Anderson helps depict it on the stage and Maude Adams in magazine. Ancient Israelite or modern Moslem finds it the garden of the Lord. "The man who is afraid of prayer is unwise to set foot beyond the palm trees," says a Hichens character. "Why unwise?" "The Arabs have a saying, 'The desert is a garden of Allah.' Some thoughtful natures feel the call of the sands as others do the call of the waters. To them the desert stretches from the palms of human centers as eternity stretches from the edge of time. They revel in the impossible blue of the sky and the blood red of the moon. For them the quaint perfume seller, the weird sand diviner, the mystic fakir, the beating of tontom, the Arab spreading his praying mat and falling with his face toward Mecca, have an absorbing charm. Kismet, destiny, narcotic fatalism, sweeps over them, and they quote the Koran. 'The fate of every man have we bound about his neck.'"

The Garden of Allah.

The desert has its counterpart in the soul of man. "Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place," said Christ. A soul desert is any place where one is separated from man and left alone with God. It is the great brooding place of a human soul. "No one but God and I knows what is in my heart," is the strain of the African flute player. Sometimes when men refuse to isolate themselves from the world, become so wrapped up in acquirement of pleasures, position, wealth, that they never get alone with God, he calls them by misfortune, sickness, bereavement, beyond the palms into the garden of the Lord. "Oh, that I might know where to find him!" is the cry of the age. And when at last he is found it is where we had least expected it—at our side. "How near God is!" Yes, and how far we travel to find him! Defeats, thwartings, heartaches, are dry, parching sands. The dreariest acre of wilderness contained the well of Beer-sheba. There's no sorrow but there's a balm. Only there's nothing so blind as a sense of injustice, grief, disappointment. So some become doubters, hurt and offended at God. But listen! Do you believe in God at all? Certainly! Well, then, do you believe that he would make a desert, send us into it and not put a well of water into it? That would be a devil, not a God. If there is a God, then there is water! I care not for gathering vultures or blinding sand storm if God lives. Kismet? No, trust!

The garden of Allah is open to those who suffer. Pain is part of humanity's lot. The more highly organized, the finer your nervous system, the more you suffer. Creatures without nervous systems do not suffer. An iron crowbar does not vibrate like a piano string. The body is a marvelous harp—not a clam or a crab. Those who mourn will find the desert a place of comfort. Remember "The Light of Asia?" Young mother, with her dead serpent bitten child, comes to Buddha. "What will heal my child?" "Go, beg some mustard seed from house where neither father, mother, child nor slave has died." The "bitter balm" of Buddha was to seek for what none could find. Christ says, "I am the resurrection and the life." The desert holds something else besides physical suffering and mental torment. The desert holds the personal presence and ministry of God. It has taught man some of the choicest secrets he has ever learned. Mystic words would never have been heard amid the din of daily life. Flashes of revelation would never have been noticed in the glare of the world. The God of the desert speaks louder than the God of the city.

"Write It In the Sand."

The Arabs have a saying, "In the desert one forgets everything, one remembers nothing any more." That is the message of the endless wastes. It is easier to remember than to forget. But many things we must forget if we would be happy. Forget that you sighted opportunities for knowledge when you were younger; that you lost opportunities for investment; that you married unwisely; that in youth you wasted vital forces and sinned against your body. Forget injuries, faults, injustices. If you see a fellow succeeding and know something that would humiliate him; if you know of a skeleton in your neighbor woman's closet; if you know anything that will darken joy, wipe out smiles, destroy happiness—forget it. Confess your sins to God and forget them. Don't make yourself the devil's pack horse by carrying them all. God says, "I will remember them no more forever." I wonder if ever you are weary and sick at heart? Let me tell you the promise is, "Though ye fall ye shall not be utterly cast down when another's sins are laid upon you."

The 1912 Jackson County Directory

Including the Incorporated City and Towns of SEYMOUR, BROWNSTOWN and CROTHERSVILLE AND EVERY TOWNSHIP IN JACKSON COUNTY

This is the first complete Directory ever issued for all of Jackson county including the city of Seymour, the incorporated towns of Brownstown and Crothersville, and every township in the county.

The Directory was compiled under the direction of the Seymour Republican by canvassers who made a house to house visit of every home in the county, securing at first hand the names and information.

The Directory contains 368 pages and is substantially bound in cloth.

The Directory gives the occupation and the postoffice address of every person in Jackson county.

The Directory indicates all real estate owners by a star after the name, and in the township lists it gives the number of acres owned by every farmer in the county.

The Directory lists a man and his wife in the same line so that family relationships are easily seen.

The Directory is completely indexed on Page 2, and explanatory notes indicate all the details used in compiling it.

The Directory will be useful to you in a score of different ways through the vast amount of detailed information which it gives.

The Directory will furnish you information about the citizens of the county, and will aid you in making up any kind of a list of names and in securing addresses for use in connection with your business.

NARROW ESCAPE DURING WAR

Four Members of Ninth Illinois Cavalry Move Sleeping Quarters Just Before Tree Falls.

March 6, 1862, the Ninth Illinois cavalry (Col. A. G. Brackett) left Pilot Knob, Mo., en route for Jacksonport, Ark. I was bugler of Company A, and was at that time a beardless boy of twenty. On the evening of March 9 we camped on Alder creek. It had been raining steadily all day, and the creek bottom on which we camped was quite wet and covered with pools of water, writes G. M. Keller of Brookdale, Cal., in the National Tribune. The camp was pitched with all due regard to military regulations; each company's tents were in perfect alignment regardless of waterpools.

The tent occupied by Corporal S. D. Cleland, George Webster, John Eberhart and myself happened to be directly over one of these pools, and as it was impossible to make our beds Corporal Cleland went to Captain Bargh for permission to move the tent a few feet back on higher ground, but the request met with prompt refusal. Military rules at that stage of the game had to be observed. Night fell early, and after a supper of bacon, hardtack and coffee we wrapped ourselves in our blankets and sat on our saddles.

By eight o'clock we all decided we had had enough of it, and moved on the other side of the creek, deciding that military regulations "might go hang." We found a dry spot under a large oak tree. It was hollow, and we soon had enough dry wood to start a roaring fire, before which we made our bed and were soon asleep.

About 12 o'clock Cleland woke us up in no gentle way, and to our surprise and consternation we saw the trunk of the tree was a roaring furnace, with sparks and fire spouting out of a hole 20 feet from the ground. That chimney certainly had a good draft.

Some of us were of the opinion that the tree could not possibly burn down before morning, and were going to sleep again, but after a heated discussion we gathered our traps and went back to our tent, where, seated on our saddles, we dozed till morning. About three o'clock the whole camp was awakened by a loud crash, and when daylight came we found the tree lying directly over where our bed had been.

Each of us boys lived to see three years and over of active service, and were honorably discharged at the close of the war. The Ninth Illinois cavalry was brigaded with the Second Iowa cavalry, and had a well-deserved reputation as a fighting brigade.

It was a common remark of the Johnnies that the Ninth Illinois cavalry and the Second Iowa cavalry were married, for when they would run up against one regiment they usually had the other to deal with.

Few, if any, medicines, have met with the uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The remarkable cures of colic and diarrhoea which it has effected in almost every neighborhood have given it a wide reputation. For sale by all dealers.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Fosgate left in their automobile this morning for Chicago. From that place they will drive to Elgin, Illinois, where they will visit Mrs. Fosgate's father who is quite ill.

east to one hundred feet of Indianapolis avenue to the manhole in the alley located in block "K." The petition was granted, Misch being the only councilman to vote in the negative.

Buse introduced an ordinance authorizing a temporary loan of $10,000 to be borrowed when needed and warrants to be given for $500. It further provided that advertisements be made for sealed bids according to law. Several weeks ago a temporary loan of $20,000 was authorized, but this was declared void as the loan had not been properly advertised.

The ordinance prohibiting the use of any kind of fireworks in any public place was passed. This ordinance was passed by a vote of 10 to 2.

Upon motion of William Willman was appointed sweep for South Walnut street. Fred Hollenback was appointed sweep for North Chestnut streets upon the motion of Davison. The men will begin work Monday.

Misch stated that he had made some investigation and found that the building cost $28,000 but had been a losing proposition and that twenty-five of the original stockholders have lost their investment. The other fifteen had managed the building without interest on the investment and had paid taxes into the city treasury each year. They asked the council to look at the building as a public building rather than a private investment.

Tasky moved that the council paid the stockholders $50 annually for rent, this being the same amount charged for license. The motion was lost by a vote of four to three, Sherman Day, Misch, W. R. Day and Buse voting "no" and Hodapp, Tasky and Davison voting "aye."

Upon the motion of Misch the Indianapolis, Columbus & Southern Traction Co. and the C. T. H. & S-E. were ordered to pave their tracks across Ewing street.

Upon motion of Buse William Willman was appointed sweep for South Walnut street. Fred Hollenback was appointed sweep for North Chestnut streets upon the motion of Davison. The men will begin work Monday.

The city clerk was ordered to red-ink the year of Indiana coal.

LADY'S DRESS.

5903

This is a dainty model for development in white serge, mohair or tan pongee. The dress closes at the front and is quite simple to develop. It has a three-piece skirt with excellent lines that make the frock very distinguished looking. Plaiting is used to trim the dress following the closing line from the neck to the hem and edging the turned-back cuffs.

The pattern (5903) is cut in sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure. Medium size will require 4 1/2 yards of 36-inch material or 4 yards of 44-inch goods with 2 1/2 yards of plaiting.

To procure this pattern, send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

THREE KILLED

Train Crashed Into Automobile Containing Academy Students.

Norway, Me., Sept. 28.—Three persons were killed and two seriously injured when a passenger locomotive on the Norway branch of the Grand Trunk railroad smashed into a touring car in which two girls students of the Hebron academy were riding with two young men and a driver. The dead are Miss Dorothy Green, 17, and Miss Mary Green, 15, both of Hebron.

A PRETTY SHINDY IS ON IN ULSTER

Orangemen Covenant to Ignore
Irish Parliament.

NEITHER WILL THEY PAY TAXES

Marching Behind a Banner That Was Borne in the Front of William III. at the Battle of the Boyne, Ulsterites Today Are Marshalling Covenanters Who Are Pledging Themselves to Resist Home Rule to the Last Ditch.

Belfast, Sept. 28.—In Ulster hall last night the final meeting of the anti-home rule covenant campaign was held. The building was crowded to suffocation and an overflow meeting was held in the street outside and comprised many thousands of people.

Several letters from Unionist leaders were read and evoked enthusiasm. Arthur J. Balfour, the former Unionist leader, wrote that nothing would induce him to believe that the British people or even the present house of commons, which grossly misrepresents them, would try to drive Ulster out of the union if they even faintly comprehended Ulster's passionate loathing of the scheme of dismemberment.

"There must surely be some limit to the government's recklessness," wrote Mr. Balfour, "and even they must hesitate to make loyalty a crime."

The Marquis of Londonderry, who presided at the meeting, declared that the covenant would be carried out to the letter, notwithstanding the grave responsibility it incurred. The Marquis of Salisbury and Admiral Lord Charles Beresford also spoke.

A resolution in accordance with the purpose of the meeting was carried with furious enthusiasm, and the Orangemen today are signing a covenant pledging themselves to ignore the Irish parliament when it is established and not to pay taxes under the proposed new order of things.

There was a dramatic incident during the meeting. Colonel Wallace, a prominent Orangemen, produced a flag which had been borne in the front of William III. at the battle of the Boyne. It is a treasured relic of the descendants of Lieutenant Watson, who carried it during the famous fight. Colonel Wallace announced that they thought that "now is the time it should come forth to again take its place in the van of freedom." The immense audience was thrilled and there were roars of applause.

Colonel Wallace handed over the flag, which has a five-pointed star in the center and a red cross in the corner, to Sir Edward Carson, who carried it before him when he headed the procession of signers of the covenant today.

COUNTER CHARGES

Mrs. Laura Schenk Files Cross Bill to Husband's Complaint.

Wheeling, W. Va., Sept. 28.—The answer and cross bill of Mrs. Laura Farnsworth Schenk in the divorce proceedings instituted by her husband, John O. Schenk, the millionaire pork packer, has been filed in the circuit court. Mrs. Schenk enters a categorical denial of the charges that she attempted to poison her husband by placing arsenic in his drinking water, or that she was guilty of improper conduct with Dan Phillips, a piano salesman, who was one of the principal witnesses against her in her trial for attempted murder in January, 1911.

In her counter charges Mrs. Schenk charges her husband with infidelity, naming as co-respondents, Bessie Clayton, a vaudeville star; a Parisian girl, and May Franklin, an inmate of a disorderly house in this city.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Adds Healthful Qualities to the Food

Prof. Prescott, of the University of Michigan, explains why Royal Baking Powder adds healthful qualities to the food.

Testifying before the Pure Food Committee of Congress, the Professor stated that fruit acids were excellent articles of food and that of these cream of tartar, the acid of grapes, held rank with the highest both in itself and its effect in the process of leavening and baking. He regarded the results from cream of tartar baking powder as favorable to health. Scientists and hygienists are in accord with this opinion.

Royal is the only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.

CURRENT VERSE

My Proud Pa.
I know the big head bendin' over my crib
As my Pa.
I suppose that wisecrack whose talk is so glib
In my Pa.
I've not been here long now—my days are but three,
but I know something that even a baby
can see.
The man who takes all the credit for me
Is my Pa.
Whose that the man with the hat that won't fit
Is my Pa.
Whose that that fellow who think he's big
Is my Pa.
He's a little guy, too, but as proud as can be,
And that wonderful lady an' I both agree
That no one who takes all the credit for me
Is my Pa.

I know that the man with that facecreaky grin
Is my Pa.
I know that that short chap, so terribly
thin,
Is my Pa.
Whose is that wonderful lady in white,
Whose is as sweet as an angel at night,
Is my next to that proud little geezer,
Is my right,
Is my Pa.

A Book.

Hearts and drank the precious words,
The spirit grew robust;
He knew no more that he was poor,
That his frame was dust.
He danced along the dingy days,
And this bequest of wings
Led to the book. What liberty
The book's spirit brings.

—Emily Dickinson.

Mesa Land.

I know a place, a boundless place,
Where sheep are grazing on each hill.
Where man ne'er reckons time nor space
But of the landscape drinks his fill.
And looks, and gazes yet again
Where distant mesas swim in gold,
And ne'er a sunset on the plain
But brings its surge of awe untold.

For who can gaze upon this land,
This western land we hold so dear,
And feel no throb of pain? Whose hand
Shall fail to brush away a tear?
Whose being no response shall yield
Unto vast glories—mark them well—
When o'er a battlemented field,
The western sun has cast its spell?

In silence were the mesas wrought,
And in the silence they dwell;
No sound of man-made mart is caught
To break the magic of the spell;
The very bell upon the sheep
Sounds faintly in the shepherd's ears;
Here, in the land where mesas sleep,
And stored the dim past's silent years.

—Denver Republican.

A House of Worship.

Calmly it stands, this sanctuary old,
Crowned with its spires, uplifted toward the skies;
The portal opened wide 'neath cross of gold,
Welcoming all to that which in it lies;
And in the cloistered depths, the fragrant air
Is glorified with wondrous rays of light
That cast their benediction everywhere,
From stained glass windows, radiantly bright.

Here may the weary pilgrim pause a while,
Unburdening the sorrows from his breast;
And following a length of quiet aisle,
Find near the altar balm of peace and rest.

—Mary Lord.

Song.

When love has been a flower
One smothered and laid by,
Or set in a glass
Where he useth to pass
Till it should fade and die;
Then one with time forgets it,
And another flower contents,
Or if he brief regrets it
'T is that it pleased his sense.

When love has been a throbbing
Of one's own inmost heart,
The light of his eyes,
The breath of his sighs,
His soul's bliss and its smart;
Then love by life is measured,
Since love and life are one,
Together they are treasured,
Together they are done.

—Arlo Bates.

Looking Ahead.

It's a world of promise restful
That the orators reveal
As each one brings forth a chestful
Of choice patriotic zeal.
We will quite forget the present.
Any scenes that now dismay
Will be so noble and pleasant,
So they say.
Some day.

We won't have any bosses
And we won't have any loot,
There won't be any losses
To the financiers astute
By the lambkins plump and frisky
Who in Wall street love to play.
Life will cease to be so risky,
So they say.
Some day.

—Washington Star.

The Teachers.

Never a sweet flower idly grows,
Or scatters on the wind;
Out of the ashes of the rose
Springs dreams that warm the mind.

Never a cloud floats lightly by,
Nor withers like a scroll,
But flings a vision from the sky
That lingers in the soul.

Never a linnets or a lark
Breaks Sabbath with a song,
But sends the ear at dawn or dark
Some hymn with message strong.

Never an idle thing at all
In heaven or the clod;
For every beauty, great or small,
Preaches the word of God.
—Edward Wilbur Mason in Ave Maria.

The "Filler."

I am not exactly thrilling,
I am no poetic treat,
All my duty I'm fulfilling
If I make this page complete.

'Mongst the masterpieces never Shall I be assigned a place,
I'm no earthly use whatever—
Save to fill this vacant space.

Yet, O Reader, do not scold me,
Though I merit little praise,
For my author, when he'd sold me,
Ate his first square meal in days.

—Deems Taylor.

from farming. I have always made money on this fine 320-acre farm, and have taken good care of it. I don't new barn; nice young orchard, fenced with woven wire; shade trees in yard. All but 60 acres tillable. Top soil 2 feet deep. Finest neighbors in the world—all well-to-do folks. I want $40 an acre.

(Some farms no better sold for $50.) That is the least dollar that will buy it. That is $12,800 and I want all cash. If you can't pay all cash, and need some time, my agent says he can arrange a $5000 five year loan. Write him for further particulars and photographs. He

Do you see how the square cross-rod at top of head and foot beautifully this bed?

Imagine this design with round tubing in those positions. Would not the result be "ordinary" and monotonous?

It is just such details of clever and artistic designing that have made our steel beds so popular. And the very large corner posts with brass caps all combine to make this an unusually artistic bed.

Moreover this bed is as good as it looks.
Because it is made of drawn steel tubing,
very light in weight—extremely strong.

A child can move this bed with the greatest ease. Come in and see this bed.
Then you will realize how good it is.

Airbreadth Harry—Rudolph's Vile Scheme Fails

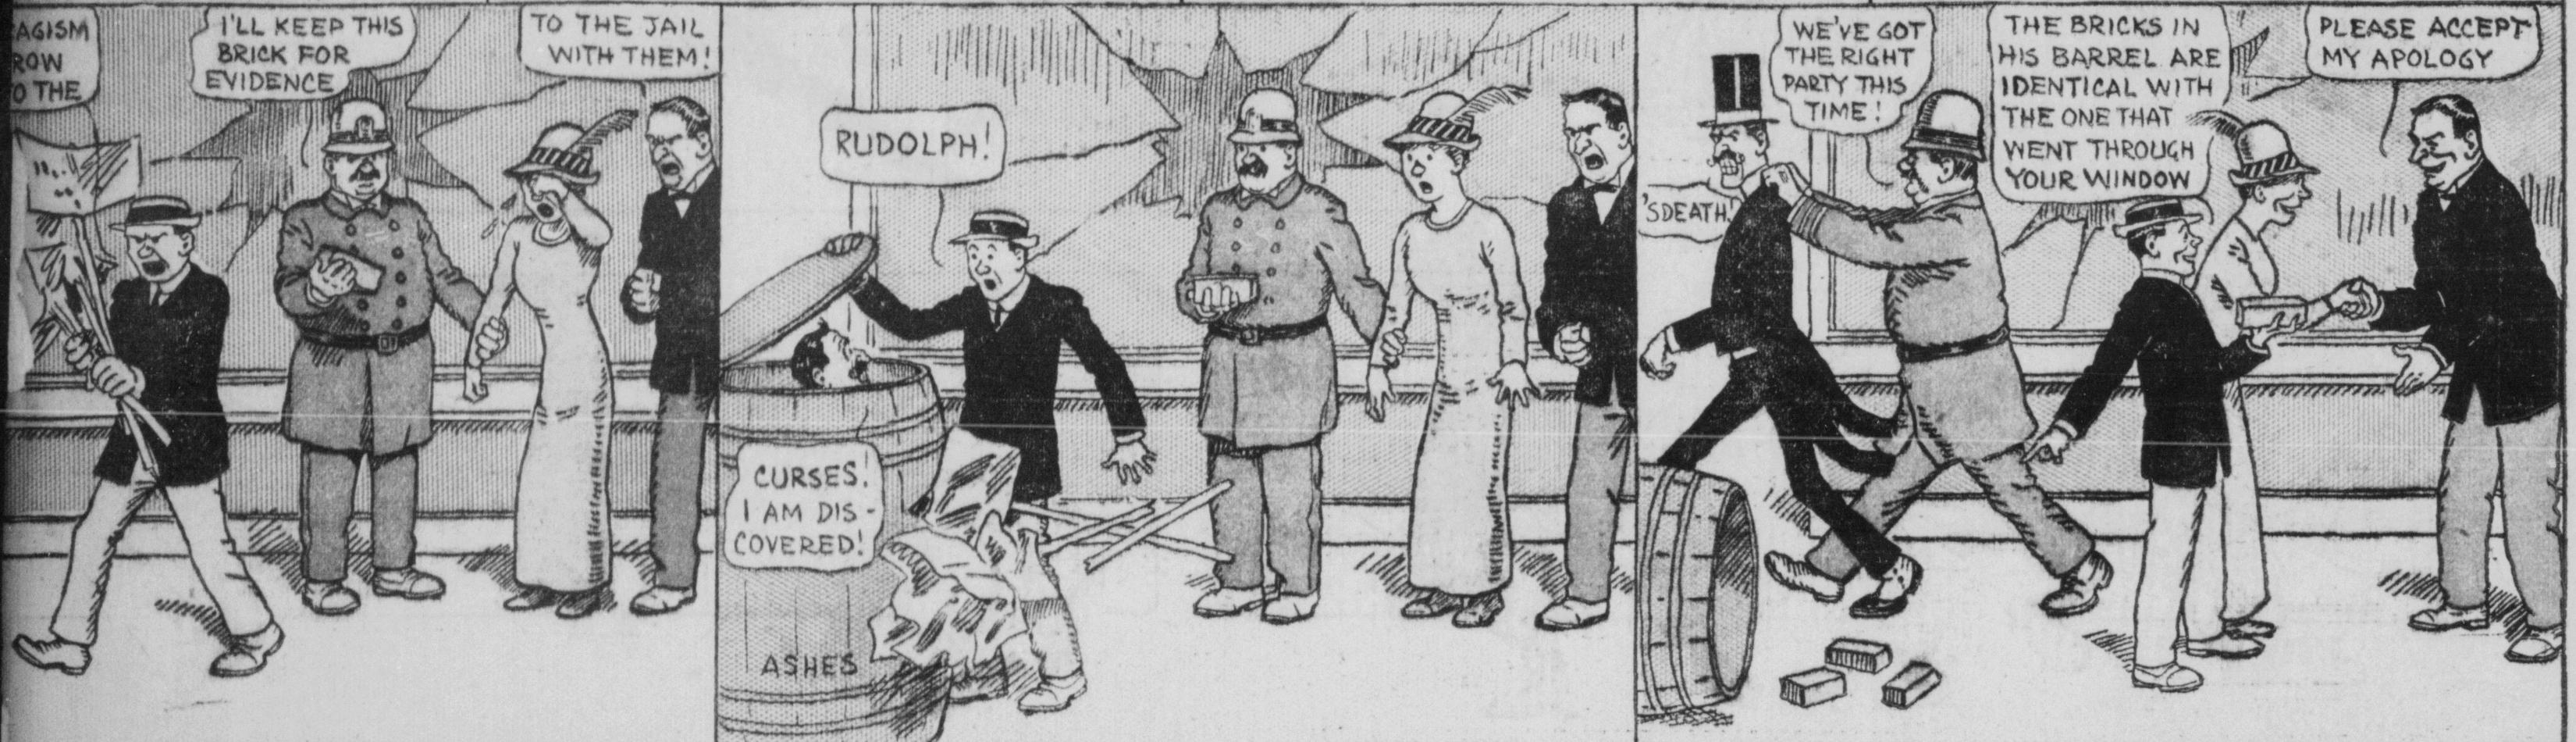

AFKING AT THE DELAY IN GETTING BACK BUT OF COURSE HE CAN'T TURN DOWN A SUFFRAGETTE RALLY.

HE ISN'T VERY KEEN ON LEADING THAT SUFFRAGETTE PARADE BUT WHEN A LOVELY LADY LIKE THE BEAUTIFUL BELINDA USES HER PERSUASION THERE'S NO RESISTING.

SUDDENLY A BRICK HURTTLED THRO' THE AIR AND SMASHED A PLATE GLASS WINDOW!!!

WE DON'T KNOW MUCH ABOUT THE LAW BUT WE CAN EASILY SEE WITH HALF AN EYE THAT SUSPICION POINTS TO OUR SUFFRAGETTE FRIENDS AND THE EVIDENCE IS ALL AGAINST THEM.

R HARRY! THE LOVELIEST SIREN ON EARTH COULDN'T WIN ANOTHER SUFFRAGETTE MOVEMENT! TO THE JUNK THERE'S NOTHING NOW BUT TO FACE A LONG TERM IN JAIL.

BUT JUST THEN HE REMOVED THE LID OF THE ASH BARREL AND A FAMILIAR MUG STARED HIM IN THE FACE!!!

WE COULD HUG OURSELVES WITH DELIGHT AT THE WAY THE TABLES ARE TURNED ON THAT MONSTER, RUDOLPH, EVEN AT THAT HE MIGHT HAVE ESCAPED BUT FOR THE TELL TALE BRICKS FOUND IN HIS BARREL.

ANNA BELLE'S SEWING SOCIETY'S GOOD WORK

Dear Friend:—At the last meeting of our Sewing Society we made some new things for a poor little girl and boy. We had to go to the treasury to get money to buy the trousseau, stockings and shoes. but everything else was made in the regular work of our Society. Of course, our mamas helped us with everything or we couldn't have made the nice things we did. I wish you could have seen how happy the poor girl and boy were when we gave them the new things. I guess it was the first time they'd ever really had anything new, for I heard the little girl say to her brother, "My, Jimmy, and to think I have a real pair of stockings without a single hole in them! Ain't that grand?" How are you getting along in your Sewing Society work? Yesterday's mail brought me a great bunch of letters from my friends everywhere and really I haven't finished reading all of them yet. All of them are so enthusiastic over the Anna Belle Sewing Society and some write that they have already gotten their Certificates of Membership. Have you gotten yours yet? If you haven't you must be sure to call at the office of this newspaper and you can get one or if you are President or some officer of your Anna Belle Sewing Society you can get Certificates for the other members if it is inconvenient for them to call. However, should you live some distance from the newspaper office write to the ANNA BELLE SEWING SOCIETY, CERTIFICATE EDITOR, care of this paper, enclose a two-cent stamp for postage and the Certificate of Membership will be sent to you. I hope you will be as proud of yours as we are of ours, and of course I'm sure you will. Get your mama to explain any parts in it which you do not understand fully. Mama will know. Now please let me hear from you real soon and tell me what success you are having. Address me care this paper. Lovingly,

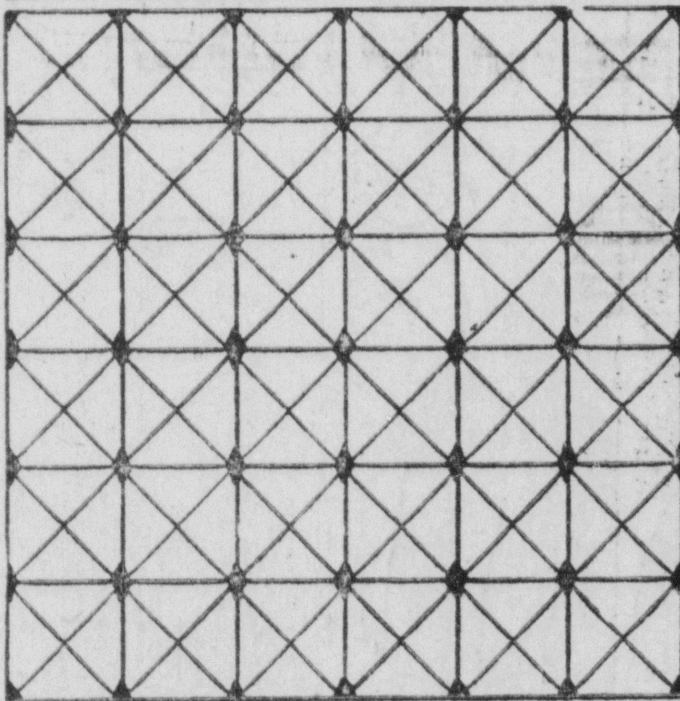

Anna Belle

THE OTHER DAY POLLY WAS ON HER PERCH OUT ON THE PIAZZA WHEN A PEACOCK STROLLED LEISURELY BY AND PROCEEDED TO EXHIBIT HIS FEATHERS. THIS DISGUSTED POLLY, PROBABLY BECAUSE SHE HAD NO BEAUTIFUL FAN TAIL FEATHERS, WHO SHRIEKED THE ABOVE FAMILIAR PROVERB. SEE IF YOU CAN PUT TOGETHER THE ABOVE LETTERS SO AS TO FORM THE PROVERB.
